PROFILE

Product and technology project lead with 4+ years translating complex work into clear workflows, stakeholder narratives, B2B campaign support, and launch-ready digital products. Co-owner of Pinnacle AI with a 25% ownership stake, where I managed three concurrent client engagements and co-developed and deployed 2-3 inventory and stock management systems using Next.js, React, TypeScript, and Supabase. At Eagle Point AI, I directed AI dataset operations, translated incoming client requirements into delivery scope, and supported adoption of an internal workflow monitoring product. I bring additional strength in content systems, storytelling, web development, and cross-functional delivery. Bachelor's degree in Marketing from Wyższa Szkoła Gospodarki (WSG) in Bydgoszcz, Poland; native Amharic and C2 English.

CORE FIT FOR PRODUCT MARKETING

Technical storytelling Translate AI, data, software, and workflow concepts for technical and non-technical stakeholders.	Product and campaign support B2B marketing campaigns, content development, HubSpot outreach, and launch-oriented communication.	Cross-functional delivery Align product, engineering, design, operations, clients, and partners around scope and outcomes.
